"GUILTY" IS PLEA OF 80 OUT OF 114 TERRE HAUTE MEN

Foremost of 34 Who Will Fight Case
Are Mayor Roberts, Circuit Court
Judge and Sheriff.

NINE MEN PLEAD NOT GUILTY

Jurisdiction of Federal Court is Questioned by 25 Among Whom
Are Terre Haute Officials.

DEMURRERS SET FOR JAN. 20

Judge Anderson Allows Eighty Defendants to go to Their Homes Until Summoned.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Jan. 12.—The authority of the United States government through its laws to govern elections was admitted today by eighty Terre Haute politicians when they pleaded guilty to an indictment charging conspiracy to corrupt the election of November 3 last, thereby,
it is alleged, defrauding the government. Only thirty-four of a total of 114 who were arraigned chose to fight the case. Of these the foremost were Mayor Donn M. Roberts, Circuit Judge Eli Redman and Sheriff Dennis Shea.

The jurisdiction of the federal court was questioned by 25 of the 34 by demurrers. Nine men pleaded not guilty. Federal Judge A. E. Anderson fixed an early date for the argument on the demurrers. He set Wednesday, January 20, as the day on which the question of the authority of the United States government will be thrashed out.

Judge Anderson allowed the eighty defendants to go to their homes until summoned by the district attorney. This act was in harmony with the entire procedure which was conducted with simplicity and quiet. At no time was a voice raised above the common tone. District Attorney Dailey, who has personally superintended this investigation, conducted the proceedings quietly.

The foremost figure in the court room was Mayor Donn M. Roberts who sat in front of his attorney, Representative A. O. Stanley of Kentucky. At no time, while his former followers they were admitting that they were parties with him to a gigantic conspiracy, did he lose his expression of confidence—"the Roberts nerve" and "the Roberts smile." There was little tenseness. Some of the defendants chewed gum and whispered among themselves.

When Jesse Powell's name was called, he arose in perplexity over his plea.

"I didn't do all that," he said, referring to the many charges in the 100-page indictment. "They put me in an auto and registered me."

"Did you have a right to register?" Judge Anderson asked.

"Yes."

"Did you register more than once?"

"Yes."

There was a ripple of laughter
among the defendants.

Judge Anderson explained to Powell his guilt and Powell was satisfied.

Of the 34 who will fight the case, those who demurred through their attorney, O. A. Stanley, were Mayor
Donn M. Roberts, City Controller E.
E. Talbott, Harry Montgomery,

president of the board of works; George Erenhardt, member of the board of works; George Straus, member of the board of public safety; John Maselink, City Judge
Thomas Smith, Circuit Judge Eli
Redman, Sheriff Dennis Shea; Hilton P. Redman, son of the judge; Lewis Munley, George Sovern, Joseph O'Mara, John E. Green, Alex
Steele, Timothy Conway, Charles
Houghton, Andrew O'Brien, Fred Morrison, Richard Kneuey and Pearl McKay.

Those who demurred through other attorneys are as follows: Arthur Gilles, William Doyle and George
Woodall, saloon keepers.

The nine who pleaded not guilty
are Maurice Walsh, county sealer; Simon Stingley, former saloon keeper; Bert Hill, Ed Driscoll, William Crockett, John Kaney, Harry Barker
and Thomas Brody.

Among the prominent defendants
are: Chief of Police Edward Holler,
Assistant Chief of Police John F.
Nugent, Eno Harns, former custodian of the city hall; John W. Tierney, saloon keeper, recognized
Democratic leader of the sixth ward Frankie Hess, former Republican leader of the sixth ward who later joined Roberts' forces; Joseph,
Dean and Earl Jeffers, three brothers, political leaders in the Taylorville district; Frank Kizer, saloon keeper-politician of the "red light" district, and George Rouse, colored politician.

The spectacle of a candidate for governor of Kentucky defending in United States district court a candidate for governor of Indiana charged with conspiring against the government of the United States in committing election frauds was presented today when Representative A.
O. Stanley of Kentucky entered an appearance for Mayor Donn M. Roberts of Terre Haute before Judge A.
E. Anderson. More significance lay in the fact that 114 Terre Haute politicians were for the first time in the history of the country arraigned on a charge of conspiring through election frauds to defraud the government.

As the 114 indicted men entered the magnificent court room singly
and in groups, a spirit of uneasiness was apparent. Possibly it was the memory that when the conspiracy clause of the federal code was last brought to bear in this room, nearly two score dynamiters were sentenced to federal prison, where many of them still are. There was also the feeling among many that the government knew their hand while it concealed its own.

Just how many full and voluntary confessions District Attorney Dailey holds was not known. In addition he has the grand jury and nearly 400 witnesses, including dive keepers, club women, dope fiends, politicians and business men. He said that the government's evidence completely proves the charges.

The arraignment was to be singly
and was expected to consume considerable time. Gathered to one side were the jail prisoners, twenty-four of them, including alleged white slavers, postoffice burglars and others. They also were to be arraigned, but after the Terre Haute men.

Many pleas of guilty were expected. The fact that many had confessed caused the supposition that these would plead guilty and throw themselves on the mercy of the court.

Mayor Roberts was the natural center of attention. He was the leader of the group of politicians when it controlled the Terre Haute political situation. They looked to him

SMITH IS GIVEN 10 TO 20 YEARS

Young Man Caught in Mulno's Store Sunday Draws Minimum Sentence For Burglary.

ENTERS A PLEA OF GUILTY

Sheriff Will Leave Wednesday Morning For Jeffersonville—
Watch Story Proves True?

Sheriff Cavitt will leave Wednesday morning for Jeffersonville with Glen Smith who will enter upon his term of from ten to twenty years in the State Reformatory. Rapid work was made of the case against Smith and the wheels of justice moved exceptionally fast.

Smith was brought before Judge
Sparks this morning shortly before noon and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of burglary that was placed against him in an affidavit filed with the clerk of the court by Prosecutor Stevens and signed by Walter Hall, a clerk at the William
G. Mulno store, who first detected Smith in the place Sunday. Upon his plea of guilty Judge Sparks sentenced him to serve not less than ten years and not more than twenty years in the State Reformatory.

This is the minimum sentence for the charge of burglary. Smith was also disfranchised for a period of ten years. The arrest and sentencing of Smith almost sets a record for local court procedure. He was arrested Sunday afternoon after he had been found in the local clothing store and tomorrow he will start serving his time in the state institution. Smith admitted his guilt when captured after a chase to Jersey City and urged the officers to make quick work of his case. He was questioned yesterday afternoon at the jail by Prosecutor Stevens in an effort to throw some light on other robberies in the city, but nothing new was learned.

The watch Smith is alleged to have sold to J. W. Tompkins proved to be the one he had stolen from a neighbor. Smith gave his age to Judge Sparks as twenty-one and this was the finding entered on the criminal docket. Clerk Taylor made out the commitment papers this afternoon and the sheriff will be ready to take him tomorrow morning.

Young Smith did not take his arrest and sentence in a very serious manner and for some reason did not seem to realize the full meaning of the crime. When Smith stated that he was ready to plead guilty the afdavit was filed in the circuit court instead of before Mayor Bebout. The city court had no jurisdiction over the final disposition of the case and it would have been an added expense on the county to have bound him over to the grand jury.

FIRST MEETING IS HELD

Rev. Frederick Elliott Begins Series
at U. P. Church.

"Testifying For Jesus" was the subject of the opening address by th Rev. Frederick Elliott of Springhill at the United Presbyterian church last night. An interested audience listened while rules that govern the testimony of witness in courts of justice were applied by the minister to the Christian in his life and work. His illustrations from the Bible and life were very apt and it is believed they will not be forgotten.
The meeting tonight will be at seven-thirty o'clock. Everyone is invited.

OLD DOCUMENTS COME TO LIGHT

Albert Winship and Albert Fleehart Possess Papers Which They Prize Highly.

ONE ISSUED 131 YEARS AGO

Three Land Grants Held by Mr. Win-ship Signed by Three Former Presidents of United States.

Since the announcement last night that A. P. Wagoner had in his possession an old legal document, two Rushville men have come forward with some old papers which are much older.

Albert Winship, president of the Rushville National bank, has three papers which hark back to the days of Andrew Jackson, James Madison and James Monroe. In fact, the documents bear the signatures of these three former presidents. The oldest one of the three was issued in 1817. The papers have come down from generation to generation in the Winship family.

Albert Fleehart, manager of the shoe department at Bliss & Cowing's store, also possesses some papers that are very rare, and one of which is older than any heretofore brought to light. The papers were formerly the property of his grandfather, Hugh Fleehart, now deceased.

The oldest of them bears the date of March 29, 1784, which is almost a hundred and thirty-one years old.
This is supposed to be the oldest legal document in existence in Rushville county. Other legal papers which Mr. Fleehart has were issued in 1827 and 1832.

The one dated March 29, 1784 is apparently a deed for fifty thousand acres of land in Kentucky. About the most remarkable thing about the document is the notation which shows that the fee for recording the deed was seventeen cents. The deed itself does not consist of more than one hundred words, which reveals the marked difference between deeds of those days and the present day.
Doubtless it would require a goodly number of typewritten pages nowadays to describe fifty thousand acres of land and the fee would be considerably more than seventeen cents.

By way of comparison, the wording of the document is very interesting. It reads something like this,
although all of the words are not written legibly:

"March 29, 1784.

"John Craig and Robert Johnson,
appraisers of Cherry Walker, enters 50,000 acres of land on (then follows two words which are not distinguishable and a series of sixteen numbers) Beginning at the distance of 800 poles running south 27 degrees east from two elm saplings which stand about twelve feet apart and a limb growing into each body from one to the other which said elm stands about one hundred yards from Robert Sanders 1616 acre entry and north of the sugar tree and as he called for in said Sanders entry supposed to—about 35 miles nearly south from the mouth of Licking (creek) thence to run north 3,000 poles then west 2,666 2/3
poles, thence south 3,000 poles, thence east 266 2/3 poles to the beginning."

Following three words, the first two of which are "a copy" and the third of which is not readable, is the signature, "Achilles Sneede, C. C.

This paper has aroused some interesting questions. It will be noted that the terms feet, miles and poles all enter into the description where-ever distance is mentioned. The

EXPERTS DEAL WITH PROBLEMS

Those That Perplex Heads of Farm and Home Are Discussed Intelligently at Short Course

WIDE VARIETY OF SUBJECTS

Every Phase of Rural Life Touched
on Today—Doctrine of Better Living Conditions

(Special to the Daily Republican.)

Lafayette, Ind., Jan. 12.—Many important problems of the farm and home were dealt with by experts today at the Farmers' Short Course at Purdue university, the program for the second day being full of interest for all. Every phase of rural life was touched upon by the speakers who preached the doctrine of better crops and living conditions on the farm. The presence of an exceptionally large number of women and young people attested the growing popularity of the short course, its ever-widening circle of influence.
Today's activities in all departments were characterized by unusually large attendance and enthusiastic co-operation. The enrollment promises to establish a new record this week.

The first of the farmers' organizations to hold its convention at the short course was that of the Indiana
Sheep Breeders' and Feeders' Association which met today. This phase of the live stock industry is beginning to interest Indiana farmers as never before and indications are that many farms that have never before maintained flocks will take up the work in the near future.

Hundreds of exhibits for the state corn show that opens tomorrow arrived today and were carefully deposited in the show room. The Corn Growers' Association meets tomorrow and on the following day the Dairy Association and the Live Stock Breeders meet. The women will also have their day, Thursday when the Indiana Home Economics
Association meets in annual session.

Practically every county in the state of any agricultural importance is represented at the big educational assembly this week and the benefits of the shore course will find their

Newspapers and Local Dealers

"Today the best selling products, especially those of home consumption, are those being advertised in the daily newspapers.
Many of these were practically unknown until recently. Now they can be found on the shelves
of nearly every dealer.

"Inquiry will reveal that the dealer recognizes the fact that the advertising of these products in newspapers published in his home town and read by his own or possible customers is not only helping to hold his trade by giving them what they want, but it is likewise developing trade for him by bringing more customers to his store.

"He realizes that only a small per cent of his trade are readers of national publications.
He does know that in practically every home served by him a daily newspaper is read and that paper is one or more of the daily newspapers published in his own town."

term "poles" is lost to the present generation and no one seems to know just how much one pole is equal to.

The paper dated October 27, 1827, which Mr. Fleehart has, is a marriage license. It reveals the vast difference between a marriage license of that day and this. The document is very brief, is written on a piece of paper which had evidently been torn from a larger piece and in a handwriting that is hardly legible. Here's the way it reads:

"Indiana court,

"Rush county: To any person duly authorized to solemnize marriages in the county aforesaid, you are hereby authorized to join together in the bands of matrimony William Junkess and Emily Eliza Linsey (these names may not be correct, but that is the way they appear to be) and in so doing this shall be your sufficient warrant.

Witness Robert Thompson, clerk of the Rush circuit court, this 31st day of October, 1827. Robert Thompson, clerk."

Another document Mr. Fleehart has is tax receipt issued to Moses Stewart by R. Hackleman, who was then designated as "collector for Rush county," according to the receipt. It is a model for brevity, simply stating: "Received of Moses Stewart one dollar and fifty-nine cents, it being in full of his state and county tax for the year 1832. R. Hackleman, collector R. C. "It was a printed form filled in with the name and sum. In those days, evidently, high taxes were not in vogue.

Still another paper of Mr. Fleehart's consists of the "by-laws and constitution" of an organization known as the "Education Society." It was formed for the purpose of preparing pious young men for the ministry in the Presbyterian church "to furnish the destitute with the preaching of the gospel by a well qualified ministry." It contains the names of the "charter members" and beside each name is the amount subscribed for the support of the society, apparently to be paid annually. The names follow, some of them familiar family names here today: "M. B. Laughlin, $.50; James Walker, $.50; H. G. Sexton, $.50; Daniel Smith, $.50; James Parks, $.50; Samuel Damer—(remainder of name not readable), $.50; Riley (last name not distinguishable, $.25; Robert English, $.50; John F. Gwinn, $.50; Thos. Pugh, $.25; (a name not readable), $.25; Samuel English, $.50; Lot Swift, $.50; John Carr, $.50 Jacob Boyers, $.25; Benjamin Fry, $.25; Derostus Fry, $.50; William Sickles, $1.00; Samuel Stewart, $.50; Noble Junken, $.25; Moses W. Stewart, $.25."

There is no date on this document, but it is evidently very old.

The three old papers which Albert Winship prizes so highly are all land grants issued by the United States in the days when there was much government land to be taken up. The oldest document of the lot was issued by President James Madison February 6, 1817 to Jesse Winship as assignee of John Conner. It was issued from the Cincinnati office and was described as "the northeast quarter of section twenty-three of township fourteen in range twelve east of the second principal meridian."

The next oldest document is the one signed by James Monroe and issued March 4, 1822 to William G. Priest of Wayne county, Indiana. The document was signed by Andrew Jackson January 6, 1831 to Richard Lawson of Rush county, Indiana. All of the land grants were signed in the original handwriting of the presidents.

RHEUMATIC VICTIMS

Johnson's No-Cure No-Pay offer Attracts Many to Test Rheuma

If Rheuma, the wonderful prescription for rheumatism sold by Johnson's Drug Store and all druggists, does not cure any purchaser, the druggist will return your money without any red tape.

Rheumatism is a dangerous disease; because of its shifting nature it often strikes the heart and proves fatal. Any one with even a taint of rheumatism ought to drive it out as soon as possible.

Rheumatism is caused by sluggish worn-out or overworked kidneys, which become clogged and fail to eliminate the impurities from the system.

Rheuma acts promptly and directly upon the kidneys; it cleanses them; it absolutely renovates and leaves them in perfect condition, able to do the work nature intended they should do. 50 cents a bottle. (Advertisement.)

Anticipated Revenues.
The Republican state headquarters has given out a statement concerning state finances to refute the claims of the Democratic state press bureau in its brags of the wonderful achievements of state administration. Attention is called to the fact that the administration anticipated revenues to the extent of a million dollars and was thus enabled to liquidate loans and past other state debts last day of the year 1914.

FIGHTING ALONG LOWER NIDA

Vienna, Jan. 12.—One of the most daring exploits of the war is summarized by the Austrian war office today. It states that an Austrian patrol operating at an important position on the front penetrated the main line of the Russians and pushed forward to the residence of the commandant, broke in and took the officer and his guard of six men prisoners. The patrol successfully retraced its steps, the statement says.
The fighting yesterday was confined generally to the lower Nida where the Russians tried to cross the low country bordering on the river to assault the Austrian position. The Austrian artillery has complete range of the country and easily repulsed the attack.

French War Office Says Stubborn German Fight Makes Battle of Great Intensity.

CONTINUES NEAR SOISSONS

Paris, Jan. 12.—Fighting which equals in intensity any of the present war continues near Soissons where the Germans are vainly trying to retake the three lines of trenches captured by the allies. Possession of these trenches has given the French a distinct advantage for if they can be held it will be possible to use mine throwers and demolish the first line of German trenches with heavy losses to the enemy.
The entire front of the trenches is covered with German dead and wounded. The French with the advantage of cover are losing far fewer men than the enemy although their losses are admitted to be heavy.

LONGER SCHOOL TERMS PROBABLE

Discussion of Township Trustee Indicates General Tendency to Get State Commission.
FIRST MEETING OF NEW BOARD
Only Four Commissioned High Schools in County, But Others Will Likely Qualify.

An eight months school term in order that more of the schools of the county may become commissioned was advocated yesterday by many of the township trustees in attendance at the first meeting of the new county board of education. Trustees in townships in which small towns are located were especially anxious to have these schools commissioned. The question of an eight months term is entirely optional with the trustees of the township.

The schools of Milroy and Manilla are the only ones at present, outside of Rushville and Carthage, that are in the commissioned list. The Raleigh school started an eight months term this year and with three more years of this length term will be ready to be commissioned. The trustee of Washington township is said to favor the eight months term and a commission will result at the end of the four-year period.

Arlington and New Salem are both likely to be commissioned. The term at the New Salem school was seven and one-half months last year and by extending this two more weeks for a period of four years that school can secure a commission. The trustee of Posey township is more than likely to have an eight-months school this year. Trustee J. V. Young of Rushville township announced last fall that his schools would be eight months this year. The schools in Rushville township cannot be commissioned but the action of Mr. Young shows that there is a tendency towards a longer school year regardless of a commission.

The county board of education organized by electing Dayton H. Gilson, trustee of Center township, secretary. All of the trustees were present at the opening meeting with the exception of Rosecoe Titsworth, who is ill at his home in Noble township. The business of trustee was new to a majority of the trustees and the two old members of the board, J. V. Young of Rushville and Jesse Henley of Carthage, were asked many questions concerning the work. Superintendent George acts as ex-officio president of the board. The trustees discussed many questions concerning their office especially those dealing with the educational side of the office.

J. V. Young announced that he had filled the vacancy at the Buell school caused by the resignation of Miss Jessie Anderson. Mr. Young announced that he had secured Miss Myrta Gustin, a student in the state normal at Terre Haute. Miss Anderson was forced to resign by the illness of her mother, Mrs. S. B. Anderson.

TAX BLANKS ARE VERY INTRICATE

Officers of Local Corporations Are Already Wrestling With Forms For Income Statute.

MUST BE FILED BY MARCH 1

Detailed Statement of Year's Business is Required by Internal Revenue Collector

Officials of local corporations are struggling with the intricate blanks which will have to be filled out and sworn to under the provisions of the federal income tax law. Attention is already being given to the blanks because they are so complicated and it will require so much time to fill them out even though they do not have to be filed before March 1 with the internal revenue collector in Indianapolis.

At the top of the bank form corporations are required to state the amount of the net income for the past calendar of fiscal year, giving the name of the corporations and the address. They are also required to give the total amount of paid-up capital stock outstanding at the close of the year and the amount of capital employed in the business. In another space they must state the total amount of bonded and other indebtedness, exclusive of indebtedness wholly secured by collateral, the subject of sale in the ordinary business of the corporation.

Then comes space for an itemized statement for the gross income from operation rentals, interest, dividends, received and other sources. The gross income, total deductions and net income must be figured up by the corporation officials. Opposite this space must be stated all deductions from expenses, rentals losses, depreciation, interest actually paid, interest paid on deposits, taxes, including federal and state, and foreign taxes, if any.

At the bottom of the blank are spaces for a supplementary report showing the amount of paid up common stock, amount of paid up preferred stock and capital employed in business. The character of the outstanding obligations must also be set forth. On the reserve side of the long sheet are numerous other blanks which must show the amount of the sales during the year, stock on hands at the close of the year, purchases during the year, and the amount of stock on hands at the beginning of the year. The above can be taken from the invoice books and where the annual inventory of stock is not taken the corporation must show in what manner the figures were derived.

The report is so detailed that it is necessary to show the amount of money that is expended during the year for wages and salaries, light and fuel, repairs, and interest paid on indebtedness. In another column the corporations must set out any losses that have been suffered during the last twelve months and the items of depreciation.

It is stated that returns made on the basis of the calendar year must be filed on or before March 1, while those made on the basis of the fiscal year are due within sixty days after the close of such year. In case an officer of any corporation is sick or otherwise prevented from filing the statement within the time prescribed the internal revenue collection may grant an additional thirty days when such showing is properly made.

Heavy penalties are provided for failure to comply with the income tax law. Any corporation neglecting to file a report which files false returns are liable to a fine of not more than $10,000 and an additional tax of fifty per cent. may be added. The statements must be sworn to before a notary public.

MINSTER SERVES HOT
FREE LUNCH

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 12.—The claim that men are driven to saloons by the free lunch counter is being vigorously combatted today by Rev. J. L. Boyer, pastor of the Collinwood Methodist church. In the basement of the $40,000 edifice, Rev. Boyer has established a soup kitchen. He had 50 guests on the first day.

"We are welcoming all who come," said Rev. Boyer. "We'll find some way to finance it."

One hundred jobless men in the vicinity prompted the minister to provide food for them.

Trial will Convince Anyone—The Great Remedy Never Disappears

A few years ago I was troubled with a complication of kidney and stomach ailments and although I tried two or three different doctors, I was unable to obtain a cure. Having heard a great deal about Swamp-Root, I decided to give it a trial and purchased a one-dollar bottle of Mr. Alexander, the druggist. From the beginning I could notice a change for the better and after taking eight bottles of your medicine, I felt entirely cured and have not had any trouble since.

Had I began using Swamp-Root sooner, I would have been a few hundred dollars to the good and saved myself a lot of suffering.

You may use my testimonial any time you wish. Yours very truly,
CHARLES E. HARRIS,
Marion, Iowa.

I certify that Charles E. Harris signed the above testimonial in my presence, being first duly sworn to the truth thereof, this the 12th day of July, 1909.

ELKS ARE TALKING OF IMPROVEMENTS

Special Committee Is Investigating Advisability of Building an Addition

REPORT IS EXPECTED SOON

The Elks lodge plans some improvements on the building, which is now owned by the lodge and a committee has been appointed to investigate. The lodge has a large lot in the rear of the building and it is believed that an addition could be made to the building on this lot. The proposed improvements would be towards the social end of the order and a dance hall would probably be one of the improvements. While nothing definite has been done by the committee a report is expected soon and the members believe the plans will be so shaped that work will be started early in the spring.

Frank Capp is chairman of the committee. The rest of the committee is composed of the following: Earl Payne, Wilbur Stiers, L. M. Sexton, A. B. Irvin, Harrie Jones, Charles Frazee, W. P. Jay and Theodore Reed.

GERMANS STILL PERSIST

Russians Say Effort to Hack Way to Warsaw Are in Vain

(By United Press.)

Petrograd, Jan. 12.—Fighting along the Polish battlefield was today reported to be confined to positions of the Rawa river where the Germans are persisting in their efforts to hack their way to Warsaw. Everywhere along the front the weather conditions are interfering with free movements of troops and only artillery exchanges are taking place. The Germans are reported to have lost heavily in their efforts to force the Russian positions and capture hills near Holimow. A score of attacks by night and by day have been directed at the Russian position but at no point has any headway been gained.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush the Kidneys at once when Back-ache or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, ladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act ne. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

That each person or taxpayer charged with taxes on a duplicate in the hands of a County Treasurer may pay the full amount of such taxes on or before the first Monday in May, or may at his option, pay one-half thereof on or before the first Monday in May, and the remaining half on or before the first Monday in November, in the manner prescribed by law. All road taxes to be added to the first installment. When the first installment is not paid prior to the first Monday in May, the taxes for the whole year become delinquent. The Treasurer will not be responsible for the penalty and charges on Delinquent Taxes resulting from any omission of the person paying to state definitely on what property, in whose name and in what township or corporation it was assessed. Persons owing Delinquent Taxes should pay them at once. The late law is of such character that there is no option left the Treasurer but to enforce the collection of delinquent taxes, however much he may regret to collect the same, by sale of property. The owner of the property on the first day of March in any year, shall be liable for the payment of all taxes of that year. The purchaser of property on the first day of March shall be considered as owner on that day.—Sec. 103. All property, both personal and real, situated in any county, shall be liable for the taxes, penalties, interests, and costs to the owners thereof, in such county, and no partial payment of such taxes, penalties, interests or costs shall discharge or release any part or portion of such property until the whole be paid; which lien shall in no wise be affected or destroyed by any sale or transfer of any such personal property.—Sec. 644, R. S.

The Treasurer has no option in rebating the penalty on taxes allowed to go delinquent. Taxpayers are particularly notified that all Road Tax is due and payable with the first installment. No County Orders will be paid to persons owing delinquent taxes and all parties are warned against buying the same. The Annual Sale of Delinquent Lands and Lots will take place on the Second Monday in February, 1915.

PARTICULAR ATTENTION

TAXPAYERS SHOULD EXAMINE THEIR RECEIPTS before leaving the Treasurer's Office, and see that they are correct. Those who have lands or other property in more than one township, must see that they have a receipt for all.

Rushville, Indiana, January 1st, 1915.

AUDITOR'S SPECIAL NOTICE.

Parties having School Fund Loans on which interest is delinquent will please give the payment of said interest their attention before March 1st, as the law requires the prompt collection of said interest.

What Cures Eczema?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. Prescription, can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. Prescription.

Drop into our store today, just to look over the merits of this wonderful Prescription.

Obituary of Nancy Jane McDaniel.

Unchecked by Mortal power, the angel of death descended and hovering around the happy children and friends quietly severed the silken threads of life and ushered a loving mother and friend into the great beyond.

Mrs. Nancy Jane Alender was born March 15, 1835 and departed this life January 8th, 1915. Existing here 79 years, 10 months and 19 days. She was the daughter of George and Sarah Adams Elender. She knew the tender love of a mother only 6 months until the angel of death came and called her mother home. Leaving her to the care of her father and the world. Fortunately a kind aunt, her fathers twin sister took her into her home and gave her the care and affections next to a mother. Until after two years her father remarried taking her home to a kind and loving step-mother. She was a member of a large family having one sister and one brother four half brothers and three half sisters all having passed away but one half brother James Alender of this place. She was married to James McDaniel of this place Aug. 22, 1857. To this union, was born ten children, seven sons and three daughters. One son and one daughter having died in infancy. She has twenty-nine grandchildren of which all are living but seven. She has one great grandchild. She was born in Rush county, Indiana and lived there all her life with the exception of thirty-two years they lived in Illinois. She has been blest with good health all her life having cared for her family and assisting all around her those who were sick and could not care for themselves. She suffered a stroke of paralysis last June and has been in declining health ever since. But she got stronger and visited her three sons in Illinois returning a few weeks ago and saying she thought best to come home as she knew she was not strong and could not expect good health long. She suffered a second stroke Monday Jan. 4th, and after enduring much pain for four and one-half days passed quietly away Jan. 8th. She was patient until the end.

This ends the beautiful useful life of a good mother, wife and friend. Dearest mother! thou hast left us, Here the loss we deeply feel, But it is God who has bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal,

The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away. Blessed be the name of the Lord. 26111

way to countless farms over the Hoosier state.

Especially interesting and instructive was the work today in the two divisions of the home economics section. The arrival of Dr. Carolyn Geisel, of Battle Creek, Mich., marked the opening of a new branch of study dealing with the welfare of the child and the health of the community. On the subject of conservation of the child Dr. Geisel spoke of the deplorable fact that there is not in the United States today an institution where a mother can gain any scientific instruction regarding the care of her child. She quoted statistics showing that in the years during which the population of this country has nearly doubled the number of degenerates has increased five times, this condition believed to be due largely to ignorance on the part of the men and women. She deplored the fact that colleges are teaching farmers to raise high grade cattle, grow better corn, better fruit, but are making no effort to instruct along lines which would be for the conservation of the child. She made a strong appeal to the women to use every effort to have included in the curriculum of study of all schools a course on the subject of health, beginning in the primary grades.

Miss Alma Garvin, in her demonstration on "School Lunches," said that since the school lunch supplied one third of the food for so many children it is a problem worthy of serious consideration. Well nourished children rank highest in educational work and it is essential that children have substantial food when attending school. Plain, nutritive and mild flavored foods are the most satisfactory. Sandwiches with fillings of meat, eggs, cheese, dates or lettuce may be used satisfactorily. The bread should be buttered and cut even. Fruit and celery are appropriate and for desserts simple puddings, custards, cakes, pie, nuts or raisins may be used. Each article should be wrapped in oiled paper and neatly packed.

"How to Use Chicken in a Variety of Ways for the Table" was the subject of a demonstration by Miss Edith Gamble which gave the housewives some valuable pointers. She first emphasized the importance of cooking chicken at a point below boiling in order to prevent it from becoming tough. That the ordinary ways of cooking chicken are not always best because they are easiest was another point she made. The fireless cooker may well be utilized when cooking chicken especially when fried. She demonstrated the use of chicken when cooked alone and in combination and showed how to prepare appetizing left-over dishes such as croquettes, creamed dishes or salads.

Dr. Geisels second lecture today was on the subject of Civic Sanitation or Community Hygiene. She first gave what she termed a "six table-card table of health" which is as follows: First, diet; second, physical exercise; third, fresh air or sanitation; fourth, correct dress; fifth, rational remedies for diseased conditions; sixth, cease worry. Among other things she said that more men were digging their graves with their teeth than die from war, ordinary sickness or accident. Fresh air is plentiful, she said, use it freely. She urged mothers to clothe their girls properly and not to allow them to go half clad according to the present fashion. Little medicine is needed, she said. She especially condemned the use of calomel. In conclusion she said: "Look well after the precious live stock in your home. You are preparing men for their country; souls for eternity. Pills and medicine never cure anybody. Eat fruit and vegetables. Leave angel-food alone and eat man-food. Use whole wheat flour."

Professor Mary Matthews demonstrated the fitting of dresses to aid the home dressmaker. By the use of dress forms ways were shown of correcting many defects in simple fashion. Wrinkles around the neck can be removed by drawing the front shoulder seam out. A collar, to set well, can not be put on with a French seam. Sleeves that are gathered at the top should not be set in with a French seam. It is better to overcast or bind them. She urged the use of a tape line to overcome defects in fitting and recommended basting garments together securely before fitting.

Knowledge of peach culture, fruit packing and storage farm orchards and insects and home vegetable gardens was imparted to the farmers enrolled in the horticultural sections today. Regarding the home vegetable garden Mr. Sayre said that the best way for the farmer to reduce the high cost of living was to give a little attention to the home garden. It will give great returns and make the farmer independent of the city. Such a garden should be located close to the house and on well drained soil. A plan should be made showing the arrangement of rows, varieties and date of planting. Early crops should be grouped on one side and late crops on the other. Fertilizer should be used in the spring. He also advocated the use of hotbeds for growing early plants. A list of vegetables suitable for a home growing early plants.

Discussing "Peach Culture" J. Os-kamp recommended a high location with good air drainage and preferably a northern exposure. He told how to set the trees and give the orchard clean cultivation during the greater part of the growing season. The "open head" is the most desirable form for peach tree. He also told how to prune properly. Spraying was another subject with which he dealt. Orchard heating, he said, was an important consideration.

"How to Combat Orchard Insects" was the subject of Prof. James Troop's lecture. He called attention to the fact that the fruit grower has many different kinds of insects with which to deal and that they must be fought in different ways. The San Jose scale has received more attention than others but it is not the most serious pest. It belongs to the sucking class whereas other pests which belong to the chewing class are harder to deal with. He mentioned the Coddling moth as a great apple destroyer.

In the poultry department Prof. A. G. Phillips told how to feed growing stock. He advocated the use of sour milk for baby chicks, feed for the growing chicks, hopper feeding on range, culling frequently and protecting the chicks from storm and enemies. L. H. Schwartz said every farm should have a good house for the hens. Great improvements are needed on Indiana farms in the housing of chickens. A good house saves labor, prevents diseases and makes winter eggs possible. On the subject of breeding stock selection he said strong birds should be picked out in order to insure success in the poultry business. There is no one best breed. He told poultrymen to keep only enough males for breeding purposes. L. L. Jones told how to market eggs at a profit. There are two ways of marketing the direct method, or through the country store or packing house. Direct marketing requires high quality and business ability. Co-operative egg marketing is possible among farmers; but quality and production must come first. "Loss-Off" buying will increase quality and price.

Among the subjects dealt with in the dairy section today were feeding dairy stock, equipping the dairy barn, the Babcock test, use of milking machines and judging. O. C. Lawrence, discussing the equipping of the dairy farm, said that the better equipped the farmers is up to a certain limit the more he will make out of his business. He emphasized the fact, however, that there are luxuries in the dairy business just the same as there are in the home. The dairyman should not go beyond his means or what market conditions will justify. Good cows are absolutely necessary and so is a good stable. Plenty of fresh air, warmth and conveniences are also needed. Ventilating systems were explained. The stanchion should be used, also concrete for floors, this being preferable to everything but cork, brick or cement overlaid with planks. Cows should be fed individually. The silo is absolutely indispensable. Milk should be taken from the stable as soon as possible and cooled.

A cow judging demonstration by O. H. Anderson was a highly educational feature. He said the dairy cow was a machine and should be studied. The system of milk production must be well developed. The cow must consume large quantities of feed, hence the animal's muzzle must be large and the jaws strong and muscular. The cow must have a good respiratory system with large open nostrils, a clean throat and a deep chest. The udder should be large, attached high behind and extended well forward.

In the crop and soil section the boys and men's classes, having been organized the day before, got down to hard work. The classes were divided into beginners' and advanced. Great progress was shown in seed corn selection and judging by those who had had the work before. Many additional members of the Indiana Corn Growers' association arrived today for the annual convention and state corn show tomorrow.

In the live stock section the morning hours were devoted to the annual meeting of the Indiana Sheep Breeders' Feeders' Association which met in Fowler. R. J. Stone, of the Maple Grov farm in Illinois, spoke before the convention on the importance of pure bred flocks. He discussed the first sheep and told how they had been improved. The value of the pure bred ram was emphasized. H. B. Allen, discussing the "Sheep Situation in Indiana," said that sheep production at this state at the present time is at a comparatively low ebb. There were fewer sheep January 1, 1914 than on the same date of the previous year. In fact, there has been a steady decrease since 1907. This is true despite the fact that farm values per head has increased from $3.84 in 1907 to 4.90 a head in 1914. Some of the factors contributing to this condition are the low price of wool lack of confidence in the wool business, failure of farmers to put the sheep business on the mutton rather than the wool basis, bad basis, bad methods of management, sheep ailments and erratic conditions of the market. The outlook, however, is bright. It has been proved that gains may be put on feeding sheep more cheaply than on cattle.

W. F. Franklin of Danville, said that the farm flock, should have a place on a very large percentage of Indiana farms. At present less than ten per cent of the farms in this state maintain sheep flocks. He told of the immunity of sheep to tuberculosis and said that sheep were great foragers, eating much food that would otherwise go to waste. Regarding the killing of sheep by dogs he advocated the suppression of dogs. He recommended pure bred sheep and moderate sized flocks. Prof. F. G. King, of Purdue, reported on experiments on lamb feeding at Purdue. These results showed that timothy hay is not a satisfactory roughage for lambs. Clover hay has proved to be the best single roughage for fattening lambs receiving a grain ration of corn. If timothy hay is fed cotton seed meal or linseed oil meal should be fed in combination with corn. The most economical ration consists of a grain mixture of seven parts corn to one part of cotton seed meal with clover hay and corn silage for roughage. I. M. Miller, of Upland, reviewed the history of sheep feeding and breeding in the state.

FALLING HAIR OR ITCHING SCALP

Now that Parisian Sage—an inexpensive preparation that supplies every hair and scalp need—can be had from Johnson's Drug Store, it is certainly needless to have thin, brittle, matted, stringy, or faded hair. No matter how unsightly your hair, how badly it is falling, or how much dandruff, Parisian Sage is, all that is needed. Every trace of dandruff is removed with one application; the hair roots are nourished and stimulated to grow new hair, itching scalp and falling hair cease.

Parisian Sage is certainly one of the most invigorating tonics, and will surely make your hair soft, abundant and radiant with life and beauty.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Try this! Mix Sage Tea and Sulphur and brush it through your hair, taking one strand at a time.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.

EIGHTY OF 114 TERRE HAUTE MEN PLEAD GUILTY TODAY

and his attorney Stanley as the leaders of the defense.

Representative Stanley was expected to attack the indictment by demurrer, and it was certain that the other Terre Haute leaders would fight the case. Jurisdiction was thought to be the principal question to come before the court. Attack likely will be made against the indictment. If it is held a faulty remedy can be had soon, for the grand jury is still in session in the term in which the indictment was returned.

Terre Haute, "The Hut" as it is known, will automatically receive a new city government if imprisonment of some of the prominent defendants is the result of the forthcoming trial. Besides Mayor Roberts, the list included Harry Montgomery, president of the board of works; George Ehrenhardt of the board; City Controller E. E. Talbott, Edward Holler, suspended chief of police; Jack Nugent, former night chief Judge Thos. Smith of the city court and several policemen. Vigo county is represented in Circuit Judge Eli Redman and Sheriff Dennis Shea.

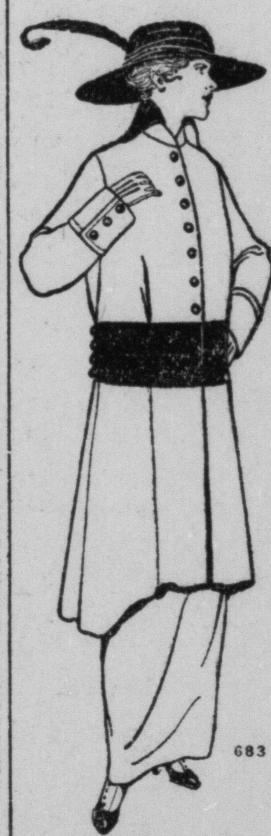

It is said the trial will disclose a story of political corruption most shameful to Terre Haute. While these men were making their pleas the grand jury was preparing to resume its investigation of what is alleged was a similar state of affairs in Indianapolis.

The Sunday school classes of the Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Yocum will give a chicken pie supper in the dining room of the church Wednesday, January 20.

The Loyal Womens' Bible class of the Main Street Christian church will meet Wednesday evening at seven-thirty o'clock in the church parlors and as this is the first meeting of the year a large attendance is desired.

W. R. Jinnett of Manila, representative in the state legislature from Rush county, was given place on two committees, according to the assignments announced yesterday afternoon by Speaker Bedwell of the House of Representatives. He is a member of the committee on rivers and waters and the one on insurance, ministers, building loan and saving associations and federal relations.

Foremost of 34 Who Will Fight Case
Are Mayor Roberts, Circuit Court
Judge and Sheriff.

NINE MEN PLEAD NOT GUILTY

Jurisdiction of Federal Court is Questioned by 25 Among Whom
Are Terre Haute Officials.

DEMURRERS SET FOR JAN. 20

Judge Anderson Allows Eighty Defendants to go to Their Homes
Until Summoned.

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Jan. 12.—The authority of the United States government through its laws to govern elections was admitted today by eighty Terre Haute politicians when they
pleaded guilty to an indictment
charging conspiracy to corrupt the election of November 3 last, thereby,
it is alleged, defrauding the government. Only thirty-four of a total of 114 who were arraigned chose to fight the case. Of these the foremost were Mayor Donn M. Roberts, Circuit Judge Eli Redman and Sheriff Dennis Shea.
The jurisdiction of the federal court was questioned by 25 of the 34 by demurrers. Nine men pleaded not guilty. Federal Judge A. E. Anderson fixed an early date for the argument on the demurrers. He set Wednesday, January 20, as the day
on which the question of the authority of the United States government
will be thrashed out.
Judge Anderson allowed the eighty
defendants to go to their homes until summoned by the district attorney. This act was in harmony with the entire procedure which was conducted with simplicity and quiet. At no time was a voice raised above
the common tone. District Attorney Dailey, who has personally superin-
tended this investigation, conducted
the proceedings quietly.
The foremost figure in the court room was Mayor Donn M. Roberts
who sat in front of his attorney,
Representative A. O. Stanley of Kentucky. At no time, while his former followers they were admitting
that they were parties with him to a gigantic conspiracy, did he lose his
expression of confidence—"the Roberts nerve" and "the Roberts smile."
There was little tenseness. Some of the defendants chewed gum and whispered among themselves.
When Jesse Powell's name was called, he arose in perplexity over
his plea.
"I didn't do all that," he said, referring to the many charges in the 100-page indictment. "They put me
in an auto and registered me."
"Did you have a right to register?" Judge Anderson asked.
"Yes."
"Did you register more than once?"
"Yes."
There was a ripple of laughter
among the defendants.
Judge Anderson explained to Powell his guilt and Powell was satisfied.
Of the 34 who will fight the case,
those who demurred through their
attorney, O. A. Stanley, were Mayor
Donn M. Roberts, City Controller E.
E. Talbott, Harry Montgomery,

president of the board of works; George Ehrenhardt, member of the board of works; George Straus,
member of the board of public safety; John Maschuk, City Judge
Thomas Smith, Circuit Judge Eli
Redman, Sheriff Dennis Shea; Hilton P. Redman, son of the judge; Lewis Munley, George Sovorn, Joseph O'Mara, John E. Green, Alex
Steele, Timothy Conway, Charles
Haughton, Andrew O'Brien, Fred
Morrison, Richard Kneuey and Pearl McKay.
Those who demurred through other attorneys are as follows: Arthur Gilles, William Doyle and George
Woodall, saloon keepers.
The nine who pleaded 'not guilty'
are Maurice Walsh, county sealer;
Simon Stingley, former saloon keep-
er; Bert Hill, Ed Driscoll, William Crockett, John Kaney, Harry Barker
and Thomas Brady.
Among the prominent defendants
are: Chief of Police Edward Holler,
Assistant Chief of Police John F.
Nugent, Eno Harns, former custodian of the city hall; John W. Tierney, saloon keeper, recognized
Democratic leader of the sixth ward
Frankie Hess, former Republican
leader of the sixth ward who later joined Roberts' forces; Joseph,
Dean and Earl Jeffers, three brothers, political leaders in the Taylor-
ville district; Frank Kizer, saloon
keeper-politician of the "red light" district, and George Rouse, colored politician.
The spectacle of a candidate for governor of Kentucky defending in United States district court a candidate for governor of Indiana
charged with conspiring against the government of the United States in committing election frauds was presented today when Representative A.
O. Stanley of Kentucky entered an appearance for Mayor Donn M. Roberts of Terre Haute before Judge A.
E. Anderson. More significance lay in the fact that 114 Terre Haute
politicians were for the first time in the history of the country arraigned
on a charge of conspiring through election frauds to defraud the government.
As the 114 indicted men entered
the magnificent court room singly
and in groups, a spirit of uneasiness
was apparent. Possibly it was the memory that when the conspiracy
clause of the federal code was last
brought to bear in this room, nearly
two score dynamiters were sentenced
to federal prison, where many of them still are. There was also the feeling among many that the government knew their hand while it concealed its own.
Just how many full and voluntary
confessions District Attorney Dailey
holds was not known. In addition he has the grand jury and nearly 400 witnesses, including dive keepers, club women, dope fiends, politicians and business men. He said that the government's evidence completely proves the charges.
The arraignment was to be singly
and was expected to consume considerable time. Gathered to one side were the jail prisoners, twenty-
four of them, including alleged white slavers, postoffice burglars and officers. They also were to be arraigned,
but after the Terre Haute men.
Many pleas of guilty were expected. The fact that many had confessed caused the supposition that these would plead guilty and throw-themselves on the mercy of the court.
Mayor Roberts was the natural center of attention. He was the leader of the group of politicians when it controlled the Terre Haute political situation. They looked to him

ENTERS A PLEA OF GUILTY

Sheriff Will Leave Wednesday Morning For Jeffersonville—
Watch Story Proves True?

Sheriff Cavitt will leave Wednesday morning for Jeffersonville with Glen Smith who will enter upon his
term of from ten to twenty years in the State Reformatory. Rapid work
was made of the case against Smith
and the wheels of justice moved exceptionally fast.
Smith was brought before Judge
Sparks this morning shortly before
noon and entered a plea of guilty to
the charge of burglary that was placed against him in an affidavit
filed with the clerk of the court by Prosecutor Stevens and signed by
Walter Hall, a clerk at the William
G. Mulno store, who first detected
Smith in the place Sunday. Upon his plea of guilty Judge Sparks sentenced him to serve not less than ten years and not more than twenty years in the State Reformatory.
This is the minimum sentence for
the charge of burglary. Smith was also disfranchised for a period of ten years. The arrest and sentencing of Smith almost sets a record for local court procedure. He was arrested Sunday afternoon after he had been found in the local clothing
store and tomorrow he will start
serving his time in the state institution. Smith admitted his guilt when captured after a chase to Jersey
City and urged the officers to make quick work of his case. He was questioned yesterday afternoon at the jail by Prosecutor Stevens in an effort to throw some light on other robberies in the city, but nothing
new was learned.
The watch Smith is alleged to have sold to J. W. Tompkins proved to be the one he had stolen from a neighbor. Smith gave his age to Judge Sparks as twenty-one and this was
the finding entered on the criminal docket. Clerk Taylor made out the commitment papers this afternoon
and the sheriff will be ready to take him tomorrow morning.
Young Smith did not take his arrest and sentence in a very serious
manner and for some reason did not seem to realize the full meaning of the crime. When Smith stated that he was ready to plead guilty the affidavit was filed in the circuit court instead of before Mayor Rebout. The city court had no jurisdiction over
the final disposition of the case and
it would have been an added expense
on the county to have bound him
over to the grand jury.

Rev. Frederick Elliott Begins Series
at U. P. Church.

"Testifying For Jesus" was the subject of the opening address by Rev. Frederick Elliott of Springhill at the United Presbyterian church last night. An interested audience listened while rules that
govern the testimony of witness in
courts of justice were applied by the minister to the Christian in his life and work. His illustrations from the Bible and life were very apt and it believed they will not be forgotten.
The meeting tonight will be at seven-thirty o'clock. Everyone is invited.

OLD DOCUMENTS COME TO LIGHT

Albert Winship and Albert Fleechart Possess Papers Which They Prize Highly.

ONE ISSUED 131 YEARS AGO

Three Land Grants Held by Mr. Win-ship Signed by Three Former Presidents of United States.

Since the announcement last night
that A. P. Wagoner had in his possession an old legal document, two Rushville men have come forward
with some old papers which are
much older.
Albert Winship, president of the Rushville National bank, has three
papers which hark back to the days
of Andrew Jackson, James Madison
and James Monroe. In fact, the documents bear the signatures of these three former presidents. The oldest one of the three was issued in 1817. The papers have come down from generation to generation in the Winship family.
Albert Fleechart, manager of the shoe department at Bliss & Cowing's
store, also possesses some papers
that are very rare, and one of which
is older than any heretofore brought
to light. The papers were formerly the property of his grandfather, Hugh Fleechart, now deceased.
The oldest of them bears the date
of March 29, 1784, which is almost a hundred and thirty-one years old.
This is supposed to be the oldest legal document in existence in Rush county. Other legal papers which Mr. Fleechart has were issued in 1827 and 1832.
The one dated March 29, 1784 is apparently a deed for fifty thousand acres of land in Kentucky. About
the most remarkable thing about the
document is the notation which
shows that the fee for recording the deed was seventeen cents. The deed itself does not consist of more than one hundred words, which reveals
the marked difference between deeds
of those days and the present day.
Doubtless it would require a goodly
number of typewritten pages nowadays to describe fifty thousand acres
of land and the fee would be considerably more than seventeen cents.
By way of comparison, the wording of the document is very interesting. It reads something like this,
although all of the words are not
written legibly:
"March 29, 1784.
"John Craig and Robert Johnson,
appraisers of Cherry Walker, enters 50,000 acres of land on (then follows two words which are not distinguishable and a series of sixteen numbers) Beginning at the distance of 800 poles running south 27 degrees east from two elm saplings
which stand about twelve feet apart
and a limb growing into each body
from one to the other which said elm
stands about one hundred yards
from Robert Sanders 1616 acre entry and north of the sugar tree and
as he called for in said Sanders entry supposed to—about 35 miles
nearly south from the mouth of Licking (creek) thence to run north
3,000 poles then west 2,666 2/3
poles, thence south 3,000 poles, thence east 266 2/3 poles to the beginning."

Following three words, the first
two of which are "a copy" and the third of which is not readable, is the signature, "Achilles Sneed, C. C.
This paper has aroused some interesting questions. It will be noted that the terms feet, miles and poles
all enter into the description where-
ever distance is mentioned. The

Those That Perplex Heads of Farm
and Home Are Discussed Intelligently at Short Course

WIDE VARIETY OF SUBJECTS

Every Phase of Rural Life Touched
on Today—Doctrine of Better Living Conditions

(Special to the Daily Republican.) Lafayette, Ind., Jan. 12.—Many important problems of the farm and
home were dealt with by experts
today at the Farmers' Short Course
at Purdue university, the program
for the second day being full of interest for all. Every phase of rural life was touched upon by the speakers who preached the doctrine of
better crops and living conditions on the farm. The presence of an exceptionally large number of women
and young people attested the growing popularity of the short course,
its ever-widening circle of influence.
Today's activities in all departments
were characterized by unusually
large attendance and enthusiastic
co-operation. The enrollment promises to establish a new record this
week.
The first of the farmers' organizations to hold its convention at the
short course was that of the Indiana
Sheep Breeders' and Feeders' Association which met today. This phase of the live stock industry is beginning to interest Indiana farmers as never before and indications are that
many farms that have never before
maintained flocks will take up the
work in the near future.
Hundreds of exhibits for the state
corn show that opens tomorrow
arrived today and were carefully
deposited in the show room. The Corn Growers' Association meets tomorrow and on the following day the Dairy Association and the Live Stock Breeders meet. The women
will also have their day. Thursday
when the Indiana Home Economics
Association meets in annual session.
Practically every county in the state of any agricultural importance
is represented at the big educational
assembly this week and the benefits of the short course will find their

Newspapers and Local Dealers

"Today the best selling products, especially those of home consumption, are those being advertised in the daily newspapers.
Many of these were practically unknown until recently. Now they can be found on the shelves
of nearly every dealer.
"Inquiry will reveal that the
dealer recognizes the fact that
the advertising of these products
in newspapers published in his
home town and read by his own
or possible customers is not only
helping to hold his trade by giving them what they want, but it
is likewise developing trade for
him by bringing more customers
to his store.
"He realizes that only a small per cent of his trade are
readers of national publications.
He does know that in practically every home served by him a daily newspaper is read and that
paper is one or more of the daily
town."

C. Johnson.

term "poles" is lost to the present generation and no one seems to know just how much one pole is equal to.

The paper dated October 27, 1827, which Mr. Fleehart has, is a marriage license. It reveals the vast difference between a marriage license of that day and this. The document is very brief, is written on a piece of paper which had evidently been torn from a larger piece and in a handwriting that is hardly legible. Here's the way it reads:

"Indiana court,
"Rush county: To any person duly authorized to solemnize marriages in the county aforesaid, you are hereby authorized to join together in the bands of matrimony William Junkess and Emily Eliza Linsey (these names may not be correct, but that is the way they appear to be) and in so doing this shall be your sufficient warrant.
Witness Robert Thompson, clerk of the Rush circuit court, this 31st day of October, 1827. Robert Thompson, clerk."

Another document Mr. Fleehart has is tax receipt issued to Moses Stewart by R. Hackleman, who was then designated as "collector for Rush county," according to the receipt. It is a model for brevity, simply stating: "Received of Moses Stewart one dollar and fifty-nine cents, it being in full of his state and county tax for the year 1832. R. Hackleman, collector R. C. "It was a printed form filled in with the name and sum. In those days, evidently, high taxes were not in vogue.

Still another paper of Mr. Fleehart's consists of the "by-laws and constitution" of an organization known as the "Education Society." It was formed for the purpose of preparing pious young men for the ministry in the Presbyterian church "to furnish the destitute with the preaching of the gospel by a well qualified ministry." It contains the names of the "charter members" and beside each name is the amount subscribed for the support of the society, apparently to be paid annually. The names follow, some of them familiar family names here today: "M. B. Laughlin, $50; James Walker, $50; H. G. Sexton, $50; Daniel Smith, $50; James Parks, $50; Samuel Damer—(remainder of name not readable), $50; Riley (last name not distinguishable, $25; Robert English, $50; John F. Gwinn, $50; Thos. Pugh, $25; (a name not readable,) $25; Samuel English, $50; Lot Swift, $50; John Carr, $50; Jacob Boyers, $25; Benjamin Fry, $25; Derostus Fry, $50; William Siekles, $1.00; Samuel Stewart, $50; Noble Junken, $25; Moses W. Stewart, $25."

There is no date on this document, but it is evidently very old.

The three old papers which Albert Winship prizes so highly are all land grants issued by the United States in the days when there was much government land to be taken up. The oldest document of the lot was issued by President James Madison February 6, 1817 to Jesse Winship as assignee of John Conner. It was issued from the Cincinnati office and was described as "the northeast quarter of section twenty-three of township fourteen in range twelve east of the second principal meridian."

The next oldest document is the one signed by James Monroe and issued March 4, 1822 to William G. Priest of Wayne county, Indiana. The document was signed by Andrew Jackson January 6, 1831 to Richard Lawson of Rush county, Indiana. All of the land grants were signed in the original handwriting of the presidents.

RHEUMATIC VICTIMS

Johnson's No-Cure No-Pay offer Attracts Many to Test Rheuma

If Rheuma, the wonderful prescription for rheumatism sold by Johnson's Drug Store and all druggists, does not cure any purchaser, the druggist will return your money without any red tape.

Rheumatism is a dangerous disease; because of its shifting nature it often strikes the heart and proves fatal. Any one with even a faint of rheumatism ought to drive it out as soon as possible.

Rheumatism is caused by sluggish worn-out or overworked kidneys, which become clogged and fail to eliminate the impurities from the system.

Rheuma acts promptly and directly upon the kidneys; it cleanses them; it absolutely renovates and leaves them in perfect condition, able to do the work nature intended they should do. 50 cents a bottle. (Advertisement.)

Anticipated Revenues.
The Republican state headquarters has given out a statement concerning state finances to refute the claims of the Democratic state press bureau in its brags of the wonderful achievements of state administration. Attention is called to the fact that the administration anticipated revenues to the extent of a million dollars and was thus enabled to liquidate loans and past other state debts last day of the year 1914.

PRESS COMMENT ON PRESIDENT'S SPEECH.
(Kokomo Tribune)
While President Wilson was speaking at Indianapolis, making lavish use of the first personal pronoun, telling the folks how immensely he is pleased with himself, his policies, his administration and the state of the country and the people under it all, a relief committee in New York City was at the very hour reporting to the mayor of the metropolis that a half million men are suffering in enforced idleness in that city alone. This was the finding of a non-partisan committee named by a democrat who is at the head of the great municipality. Was ever there a more tragic irony than that?

BOMBARDMENT IS FEARED
Refugees Tell of Panic That is Ensuing in Trieste.
(By United Press.)
Venice, Jan. 12.—Refugees from Trieste who reached here today report that the city is in a panic fearing a bombardment by a part of the Franco-British fleet now active again in the Adriatic. The governor is holding a fast automobile ready day and night for flight. He has already made two false starts only to learn that there was no bombardment, it is claimed.

RECOUNTS DARING AUSTRIAN EXPLOIT War Office Says Patrol Penetrates Main Line and Captures High Officer.
FIGHTING ALONG LOWER NIDA
(By United Press.)
Vienna, Jan. 12.—One of the most daring exploits of the war is summarized by the Austrian war office today. It states that an Austrian patrol operating at an important position on the front penetrated the main line of the Russians and pushed forward to the residence of the commandant, broke in and took the officer and his guard of six men prisoners. The patrol successfully retraced its steps, the statement says.

The fighting yesterday was confined generally to the lower Nida where the Russians tried to cross the low country bordering on the river to assault the Austrian position. The Austrian artillery has complete range of the country and easily repulsed the attack.

French War Office Says Stubborn German Fight Makes Battle of Great Intensity.
(By United Press.)
Paris, Jan. 12.—Fighting which equals in intensity any of the present war continues near Soissons where the Germans are vainly trying to retake the three lines of trenches captured by the allies. Possession of these trenches has given the French a distinct advantage for if they can be held it will be possible to use mine throwers and demolish the first line of German trenches with heavy losses to the enemy.

The entire front of the trenches is covered with German dead and wounded. The French with the advantage of cover are losing far fewer men than the enemy although their losses are admitted to be heavy.

Discussion of Township Trustee Indicates General Tendency to Get State Commission.
Only Four Commissioned High Schools in County, But Others Will Likely Qualify.

An eight months school term in order that more of the schools of the county may become commissioned was advocated yesterday by many of the township trustees in attendance at the first meeting of the new county board of education. Trustees in townships in which small towns are located were especially anxious to have these schools commissioned. The question of an eight months term is entirely optional with the trustees of the township.

The schools of Milroy and Manilla are the only ones at present, outside of Rushville and Carthage, that are in the commissioned list. The Raleigh school started an eight months term this year and with three more years of this length term will be ready to be commissioned. The trustee of Washington township is said to favor the eight months term and a commission will result at the end of the four-year period.

Arlington and New Salem are both likely to be commissioned. The term at the New Salem school was seven and one-half months last year and by extending this two more weeks for a period of four years that school can secure a commission. The trustee of Posey township is more than likely to have an eight-months school this year. Trustee J. V. Young of Rushville township announced last fall that his schools would be eight months this year. The schools in Rushville township cannot be commissioned but the action of Mr. Young shows that there is a tendency towards a longer school year regardless of a commission.

The county board of education organized by electing Dayton H. Gilson, trustee of Center township, secretary. All of the trustees were present at the opening meeting with the exception of Rosecoe Titsworth, who is ill at his home in Noble township. The business of trustee was new to a majority of the trustees and the two old members of the board, J. V. Young of Rushville and Jesse Henley of Carthage, were asked many questions concerning the work. Superintendent George acts as ex-officio president of the board. The trustees discussed many questions concerning their office especially those dealing with the educational side of the office.

J. V. Young announced that he had filled the vacancy at the Buell school caused by the resignation of Miss Jessie Anderson. Mr. Young announced that he had secured Miss Myrta Gustin, a student in the state normal at Terre Haute. Miss Anderson was forced to resign by the illness of her mother, Mrs. S. B. Anderson.

Officers of Local Corporations Are Already Wrestling With Forms For Income Statute.

Detailed Statement of Year's Business is Required by Internal Revenue Collector

Officials of local corporations are struggling with the intricate blanks which will have to be filled out and sworn to under the provisions of the federal income tax law. Attention is already being given to the blanks because they are so complicated and it will require so much time to fill them out even though they do not have to be filed before March 1 with the internal revenue collector in Indianapolis.

At the top of the blank form corporations are required to state the amount of the net income for the past calendar of fiscal year, giving the name of the corporations and the address. They are also required to give the total amount of paid-up capital stock outstanding at the close of the year and the amount of capital employed in the business. In another space they must state the total amount of bonded and other indebtedness, exclusive of indebtedness wholly secured by collateral, the subject of sale in the ordinary business of the corporation.

Then comes space for an itemized statement for the gross income from operation rentals, interest, dividends, received and other sources. The gross income, total deductions and net income must be figured up by the corporation officials. Opposite this space must be stated all deductions from expenses, rentals losses, depreciation, interest actually paid, interest paid on deposits, taxes, including federal and state, and foreign taxes, if any.

At the bottom of the blank are spaces for a supplementary report showing the amount of paid up common stock, amount of paid up preferred stock and capital employed in business. The character of the outstanding obligations must also be set forth. On the reserve side of the long sheet are numerous other blanks which must show the amount of the sales during the year, stock on hands at the close of the year, purchases during the year, and the amount of stock on hands at the beginning of the year. The above can be taken from the invoice books and where the annual inventory of stock is not taken the corporation must show in what manner the figures were derived.

The report is so detailed that it is necessary to show the amount of money that is expended during the year for wages and salaries, light and fuel, repairs, and interest paid on indebtedness. In another column

the corporations must set out any losses that have been suffered during the last twelve months and the items of depreciation.

It is stated that returns made on the basis of the calendar year must be filed on or before March 1, while those made on the basis of the fiscal year are due within sixty days after the close of such year. In case an officer of any corporation is sick or otherwise prevented from filing the statement within the time prescribed the internal revenue collection may grant an additional thirty days when such showing is properly made.

Heavy penalties are provided for failure to comply with the income tax law. Any corporation neglecting to file a report which files false returns are liable to a fine of not more than $10,000 and an additional tax of fifty per cent. may be added. The statements must be sworn to before a notary public.

MINSTER SERVES HOT
FREE LUNCH

(By United Press.)

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 12.—The claim that men are driven to saloons by the free lunch counter is being vigorously combatted today by Rev. J. L. Boyer, pastor of the Collinwood Methodist church. In the basement of the $40,000 edifice, Rev. Boyer has established a soup kitchen. He had 50 guests on the first day.

"We are welcoming all who come," said Rev. Boyer. "We'll find some way to finance it."

One hundred jobless men in the vicinity prompted the minister to provide food for them.

A few years ago I was troubled with a complication of kidney and stomach ailments and although I tried two or three different doctors, I was unable to obtain a cure. Having heard a great deal about Swamp-Root, I decided to give it a trial and purchased a one-dollar bottle of Mr. Alexander's druggist. From the beginning I could notice a change for the better and after taking eight bottles of your medicine, I felt entirely cured and have not had any trouble since.

You may use my testimonial any time you wish. Yours very truly,

ELKS ARE TALKING OF IMPROVEMENTS

Special Committee Is Investigating Advisability of Building an Addition

The Elks lodge plans some improvements on the building, which is now owned by the lodge and a committee has been appointed to investigate. The lodge has a large lot in the rear of the building and it is believed that an addition could be made to the building on this lot. The proposed improvements would be towards the social end of the order and a dance hall would probably be one of the improvements. While nothing definite has been done by the committee a report is expected soon and the members believe the plans will be so shaped that work will be started early in the spring.

Frank Capp is chairman of the committee. The rest of the committee is composed of the following: Earl Payne, Wilbur Stiers, L. M. Sexton, A. B. Irvin, Harrie Jones, Charles Frazee, W. P. Jay and Theodore Reed.

Russians Say Effort to Hack Way to Warsaw Are in Vain

(By United Press.)

Petrograd, Jan. 12.—Fighting along the Polish battlefield was today reported to be confined to positions of the Rawka river where the Germans are persisting in their efforts to hack their way to Warsaw. Everywhere along the front the weather conditions are interfering with free movements of troops and only artillery exchanges are taking place. The Germans are reported to have lost heavily in their efforts to force the Russian positions and capture hills near Holimow. A score of attacks by night and by day have been directed at the Russian position but at no point has any headway been gained.

Flush the Kidneys at once when Back-ache or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, ladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act normally. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

EXTRACTS FROM THE STATUTES OF INDIANA

That each person or taxpayer charged with taxes on a duplicate in the hands of a County Treasurer may pay the full amount of such taxes on or before the first Monday in May, or may at his option, pay one-half thereof on or before the first Monday in May, and the remaining half on or before the first Monday in November, in the manner prescribed by law. All road taxes to be added to the first installment.

When the first installment is not paid prior to the first Monday in May, the taxes for the whole year become delinquent.

The Treasurer will not be responsible for the penalty and charges on Delinquent Taxes resulting from any omission of the person paying to state definitely on what property, in whose name and in what township or corporation it was assessed.

Persons owing Delinquent Taxes should pay them at once. The late law is of such character that there is no option left the Treasurer but to enforce the collection of delinquent taxes, however much he may regret to collect the same, by sale of property.

The owner of the property on the first day of March in any year, shall be liable for the payment of all taxes of that year. The purchaser of property on the first day of March shall be considered as owner on that day.—Sec. 103.

All property, both personal and real, situated in any county, shall be liable for the taxes, penalties, interests, and costs to the owners thereof, in such county, and no partial payment of such taxes, penalties, interests or costs shall discharge or release any part or portion of such property until the whole be paid; which lien shall in no wise be affected or destroyed by any sale or transfer of any such personal property.—Sec. 644, R. S.

The Treasurer has no option in rebating the penalty on taxes allowed to go delinquent. Taxpayers are particularly notified that all Road Tax is due and payable with the first installment. No County Orders will be paid to persons owing delinquent taxes and all parties are warned against buying the same.

The Annual Sale of Delinquent Lands and Lots will take place on the Second Monday in February, 1915.

What Cures Eczema?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make an answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription, can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription.

Drop into our store today, just to talk over the merits of this wonderful Prescription.

Obituary of Nancy Jane McDaniel.

Unchecked by Mortal power, the angel of death descended and hovering around the happy children and friends quietly severed the silken threads of life and ushered a loving mother and friend into the great beyond.

Mrs. Nancy Jane Alender was born March 15, 1835 and departed this life January 8th, 1915. Existing here 79 years, 10 months and 19 days. She was the daughter of George and Sarah Adams Elender. She knew the tender love of a mother only 6 months until the angel of death came and called her mother home. Leaving her to the care of her father and the world. Fortunately a kind aunt, her fathers twin sister took her into her home and gave her the care and affections next to a mother. Until after two years her father remarried taking her home to a kind and loving step-mother. She was a member of a large family having one sister and one brother four half brothers and three half sisters all having passed away but one half brother James Alender of this place. She was married to James McDaniel of this place Aug. 22, 1857. To this union, was born ten children, seven sons and three daughters. One son and one daughter having died in infancy. She has twenty-nine grandchildren of which all are living but seven. She has one great grandchild. She was born in Rush county, Indiana and lived there all her life with the exception of thirty-two years they lived in Illinois. She has been blessed with good health all her life having cared for her family and assisting all around her those who were sick and could not care for themselves. She suffered a stroke of paralysis last June and has been in declining health ever since. But she got stronger and visited her three sons in Illinois returning a few weeks ago and saying she thought best to come home as she knew she was not strong and could not expect good health long. She suffered a second stroke Monday Jan. 4th, and after enduring much pain for four and one-half days passed quietly away Jan. 8th. She was patient until the end.

This ends the beautiful useful life of a good mother, wife and friend. Dearest mother! thou hast left us, Here the loss we deeply feel, But it is God who has bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal.

The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away. Blessed be the name of the Lord. 26111

way to countless farms over the Hoosier state.

Especially interesting and instructive was the work today in the two divisions of the home economics section. The arrival of Dr. Carolyn Geisel, of Battle Creek, Mich., marked the opening of a new branch of study dealing with the welfare of the child and the health of the community. On the subject of conservation of the child Dr. Geisel spoke of the deplorable fact that there is not in the United States today an institution where a mother can gain any scientific instruction regarding the care of her child. She quoted statistics showing that in the years during which the population of this country has nearly doubled the number of degenerates has increased five times, this condition believed to be due largely to ignorance on the part of the men and women. She deplored the fact that colleges are teaching farmers to raise high grade cattle, grow better corn, better fruit, but are making no effort to instruct along lines which would be for the conservation of the child. She made a strong appeal to the women to use every effort to have included in the curriculum of study of all schools a course on the subject of health, beginning in the primary grades.

Miss Alma Garvin, in her demonstration on "School Lunches," said that since the school lunch supplied one third of the food for so many children it is a problem worthy of serious consideration. Well nourished children rank highest in educational work and it is essential that children have substantial food when attending school. Plain, nutritive and mild flavored foods are the most satisfactory. Sandwiches with fillings of meat, eggs, cheese, dates or lettuce may be used satisfactorily. The bread should be buttered and cut even. Fruit and celery are appropriate and for desserts simple puddings, custards, cakes, pie, nuts or raisins may be used. Each article should be wrapped in oiled paper and neatly packed.

"How to Use Chicken in a Variety of Ways for the Table" was the subject of a demonstration by Miss Edith Gamble which gave the housewives some valuable pointers. She first emphasized the importance of cooking chicken at a point below boiling in order to prevent it from becoming tough. That the ordinary ways of cooking chicken are not always best because they are easiest was another point she made. The fireless cooker may well be utilized when cooking chicken especially when fricaseed. She demonstrated the use of chicken when cooked alone and in combination and showed how to prepare appetizing left-over dishes such as croquettes, creamed dishes or salads.

Dr. Geisels second lecture today was on the subject of Civic Sanitation or Community Hygiene. She first gave what she termed a "six table-card table of health" which is as follows: First, diet; second, physical exercise; third, fresh air or sanitation; fourth, correct dress; fifth, rational remedies for diseased conditions; sixth, cease worry. Among other things she said that more men were digging their graves with their teeth than die from war, ordinary sickness or accident. Fresh air is plentiful, she said, use it freely. She urged mothers to clothe their girls properly and not to allow them to go half clad according to the present fashion. Little medicine is needed, she said. She especially condemned the use of calomel. In conclusion she said: "Look well after the precious live stock in your home. You are preparing men for their country; souls for eternity. Pills and medicine never cure anybody. eat fruit and vegetables. Leave angel-food alone and eat man-food. Use whole wheat flour."

Professor Mary Matthews demonstrated the fitting of dresses to aid the home dressmaker. By the use of dress forms ways were shown of correcting many defects in simple fashion. Wrinkles around the neck can be removed by drawing the front shoulder seam out. A collar, to set well, can not be put on with a French seam. Sleeves that are gathered at the top should not be set in with a French seam. It is better to overcast or bind them. She urged the use of a tape line to overcome defects in fitting and recommended basting garments together securely before fitting.

Knowledge of peach culture, fruit packing and storage farm orchards and insects and home vegetable gardens was imparted to the farmers enrolled in the horticultural sections today. Regarding the home vegetable garden Mr. Sayre said that the best way for the farmer to reduce the high cost of living was to give a little attention to the home garden. It will give great returns and make the farmer independent of the city. Such a garden should be located close to the house and on well drained soil. A plan should be made showing the arrangement of rows, varieties and date of planting. Early crops should be grouped on one side and late crops on the other. Fertilizer should be used in the spring. He also advocated the use of hot-beds for growing early plants. A list of vegetables suitable for a home growing early plants.

Discussing "Peach Culture" J. Oskamp recommended a high location with good air drainage and preferably a northern exposure. He told how to set the trees and give the orchard clean cultivation during the greater part of the growing season. The "open head" is the most desirable form for peach tree. He also told how to prune properly. Spraying was another subject with which he dealt. Orchard heating, he said, was an important consideration.

"How to Combat Orchard Insects" was the subject of Prof. James Troop's lecture. He called attention to the fact that the fruit grower has many different kinds of insects with which to deal and that they must be fought in different ways. The San Jose scale has received more attention than others but it is not the most serious pest. It belongs to the sucking class whereas other pests which belong to the chewing class are harder to deal with. He mentioned the Coddling moth as a great apple destroyer.

In the poultry department Prof. A. G. Phillips told how to feed growing stock. He advocated the use of soft milk for baby chicks, feed for the growing chicks, hopper feeding on range, calling frequently and protecting the chicks from storm and enemies. L. H. Schwartz said every farm should have a good house for the hens. Great improvements are needed on Indiana farms in the housing of chickens. A good house saves labor, prevents diseases and makes winter eggs possible. On the subject of breeding stock selection he said strong birds should be picked out in order to insure success in the poultry business. There is no one best breed. He told poultrymen to keep only enough males for breeding purposes. L. L. Jones told how to market eggs at a profit. There are two ways of marketing the direct method, or through the country store or packing house. Direct marketing requires high quality and business ability. Co-operative egg marketing is possible among farmers; but quality and production must come first. "Loss-Off" buying will increase quality and price.

Among the subjects dealt with in the dairy section today were feeding dairy stock, equipping the dairy barn, the Babcock test, use of milking machines and judging. O. C. Lawrence, discussing the equipping of the dairy farm, said that the better equipped the farmers is up to a certain limit the more he will make out of his business. He emphasized the fact, however, that there are luxuries in the dairy business just the same as there are in the home. The dairyman should not go beyond his means or what market conditions will justify. Good cows are absolutely necessary and so is a good stable. Plenty of fresh air, warmth and conveniences are also needed. Ventilating systems were explained. The stanchion should be used, also concrete for floors, this being preferable to everything but cork, brick or cement overlaid with planks. Cows should be fed individually. The silo is absolutely indispensable. Milk should be taken from the stable as soon as possible and cooled.

A cow judging demonstration by O. H. Anderson was a highly educational feature. He said the dairy cow was a working animal and should be studied. The system of milk production must be well developed. The cow must consume large quantities of feed, hence the animal's muzzle must be large and the jaws strong and muscular. The cow must have a good respiratory system with large open nostrils, a clean throat and a deep chest. The udder should be large, attached high behind and extended well forward.

In the crop and soil section the boys and men's classes, having been organized the day before, got down to hard work. The classes were divided into beginners' and advanced. Great progress was shown in seed corn selection and judging by those who had had the work before. Many additional members of the Indiana Corn Growers' association arrived today for the annual convention and state corn show tomorrow.

In the live stock section the morning hours were devoted to the annual meeting of the Indiana Sheep Breeders' Feeders' Association which met in Fowler, R. J. Stone, of the Maple Grov farm in Illinois, spoke before the convention on the importance of pure bred flocks. He discussed the first sheep and told how they had been improved. The value of the pure bred ram was emphasized. H. B. Allen, discussing the "Sheep Situation in Indiana," said that sheep production at this state at the present time is at a comparatively low ebb. There were fewer sheep January 1, 1914 than on the same date of the previous year. In fact, there has been a steady decrease since 1907. This is true despite the fact that farm values per head has increased from $3.84 in 1907 to 4.90 a head in 1914. Some of the factors contributing to this condition are the low price of wool lack of confidence in the wool business, failure of farmers to put the sheep business on the mutton rather than the wool basis, bad basis, bad methods of management, sheep ailments and erratic conditions of the market. The outlook, however, is bright. It has been proved that gains may be put on feeding sheep more cheaply than on cattle.

W. F. Franklin of Danville, said that the farm flock, should have a place on a very large percentage of Indiana farms. At present less than ten per cent of the farms in this state maintain sheep flocks. He told of the immunity of sheep to tuberculosis and said that sheep were great foragers, eating much food that would otherwise go to waste. Regarding the killing of sheep by dogs he advocated the suppression of dogs. He recommended pure bred sheep and moderate sized flocks. Prof. F. G. King, of Purdue, reported on experiments on lamb feeding at Purdue. These results showed that timothy hay is not a satisfactory roughage for lambs. Clover hay has proved to be the best single roughage for fattening lambs receiving a grain ration of corn. If timothy hay is fed cotton seed meal or linseed oil meal should be fed in combination with corn. The most economical ration consists of a grain mixture of seven parts corn to one part of cotton seed meal with clover hay and corn silage for roughage. I. M. Miller, of Upland, reviewed the history of sheep feeding and breeding in the state.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.

and his attorney Stanley as the leaders of the defense.

Representative Stanley was expected to attack the indictment by demurrer, and it was certain that the other Terre Haute leaders would fight the case. Jurisdiction was thought to be the principal question to come before the court. Attack likely will be made against the indictment. If it is held faulty remedy can be had soon, for the grand jury is still in session in the term in which the indictment was returned.

Terre Haute, "The Hut" as it is known, will automatically receive a new city government if imprisonment of some of the prominent defendants is the result of the forthcoming trial. Besides Mayor Roberts, the list included Harry Montgomery, president of the board of works; George Ehrenhardt of the board; City Controller E. E. Talbot, Edward Hoffer, suspended chief of police; Jack Nugent, former night chief Judge Thos. Smith of the city court and several policemen. Vigo county is represented in Circuit Judge Eli Redman and Sheriff Dennis Shea.

It is said the trial will disclose a story of political corruption most shameful to Terre Haute. While these men were making their pleas the grand jury was preparing to resume its investigation of what is alleged was a similar state of affairs in Indianapolis.

The Sunday school classes of the Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Yocum will give a chicken pic supper in the dining room of the church Wednesday, January 20.

The Loyal Women's Bible class of the Main Street Christian church will meet Wednesday evening at seven-thirty o'clock in the church parlors and as this is the first meeting of the year a large attendance is desired.

W. R. Jinnett of Manilla, representative in the state legislature from Rush county, was given place on two committees, according to the assignments announced yesterday afternoon by Speaker Bedwell of the House of Representatives. He is a member of the committee on rivers and waters and the one on insurance, ministers, building loan and saving associations and federal relations.
